

Advantage College Admission Procedure

An applicant must fulfill the following requirements in order to be admitted to Advantage College:

- 1) Provide an official transcript of high school diploma or GED.
(If GED, include passing GED score and official transcript of all completed high school credits)
- 2) Submit an application, along with a non-refundable application fee of $25.00.
- 3) Provide a reference from your pastor or other church leader.
- 4) Be actively involved in a ministry at a local church while enrolled.

This is essential since a feature of the program is the application and integration of the concepts being studied into at church-based ministry. The church or ministry is a "laboratory" of ministry. Your Pastor or ministry supervisor must verify your ministry assignment. (This verification can be part of the reference letter or form as required in #3)
